Who will I train with?

During this two week intensive, Dallas Black Dance Theatre offers two comprehensive tracks for the Intermediate-Pre-Professional and Professional dancer. Classes are designed to provide a foundation for motivated students who are interested in well-rounded training. The diverse program will consist of classes taught by top professionals and renowned Master teachers in the field of dance. Classes will be offered in Classical Ballet, Horton Technique, Martha Graham Technique, Jazz, South African, Hip-hop and Tap.

This year's dynamic teaching artists and Master teachers will include: Nya Bowman (Dancer, Educator, Faculty member at the Martha Graham School, adjunct Professor at Rutgers University), Richard A. Freeman-Carter (Performer, teacher, former resident choreographer and dancer with DBDT), Shannan Johnson (1st National touring company of Amazing Grace, performer with Step Afrika!), Allan Kinzie (Director of the Ballet Ensemble of Texas and ABT Certified Instructor), Milton Myers (International Master Teacher, Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, The Juilliard School and The Ailey School), Michelle Rambo (Choreographer, Dancer, faculty member at the University of Oklahoma Musical Theatre department), and Sean J. Smith (Canadian Choreographer, Dancer, Teacher at Dallas Black Dance Theatre, Dancer of Rhythmic Souls Tap Company).
